

To whom this may concern:

I am writing to oppose the proposed "Do Not Call" law because it does not go far enough to protect me as a paying telephone customer.

In Indiana, we have a Indiana Privacy Law protections. All we needed to do was contact the Indiana Attorney General in order to be placed on a no-call list. Since my name was placed on the no-call list, my solicitation calls have dramatically decreased from 3-4 a night to possibly 1 a week. I can't tell you how much I appreciate not having my evening bothered by solicitations. In fact, I had to get caller ID in order to filter out these telephone calls. Now I don't need it.

If you are going to suggest a no-call law, consider making it as restrictive as Indiana's. My life is busy enough and I don't need solicitors making it more busy.

Thank you for your attention to this message. Working together as Indiana citizens, we can ensure the success of our Telephone Privacy program for many years to come. Please don't ruin ours!

Sincerely,

Darin Koenemann
